RE: Completed Basic Paragliding license through Paraglide South Africa

My name is Peter Oravec, I have recently complete the basic paragliding license through Paraglide South Africa and would like to commend Wayne Heuer on his instruction.

From day one, despite having multiple students, Wayne has dedicated his himself to my safety, education and development as a future paraglider pilot. Wayne is very meticulous when it comes to even the smallest details and does not overlook anything. As a part of my training, he has exposed me to a variety of scenarios, from basic to challenging in the aid of making me a better pilot.

During non-flying days, or days when the weather turned bad, our group did not stop learning, Wayne would constantly be testing my knowledge of all aspects of paragliding.

As a person who has undergone instruction in a variety of extreme sports, I would rate Wayne Heuer as the best instructor I have had as I have never felt safer. His method of instruction is clear and precise.

I would recommend Wayne Heuer to anyone wanting to learn to paraglide.

Yours sincerely
